READY FOR WORK.

The Great Industrial Congress Fully Organized.

PERMANENT OFFICERS ELECTED.

Colonel L. L. Polk, of the Farmers' Alliance, Selected as President, and Miss Frances Willard One of the Vice Presidents—The Committee on Resolutions Hard at Work.

St. Louis, Feb. 24.—A feeling of unrest was apparent among the delegates to the agricultural and industrial conference, as they slowly filed into the exposition building yesterday to open the second session and to make a staggering at getting down to the real business for which they had gathered here from nearly every state and territory of the Union.

This feeling had its origin in the developments of Monday night regarding the efforts that were being put forth by the emissaries of Leland Stanford to induce at last a few of each organization represented to range themselves under his banner as a People's party candidate for the presidency. This scheme was discovered in time to prevent the efforts from becoming formidable. On top of this, however, came the delegates from California, who were the most enthusiastic whenever reference was made to independent political action, and under the influences of Congressmen Livingstone and Moses, of Georgia, decided to take a back step. It is known that both the representatives in question are opposed to the third party scheme.

The delegates were slow in getting together, and to make matters worse it was announced that, after pretty nearly an all-night session, the committee on credentials was unable to make its report. This was explained by the fact that a number of delegates, representing organizations not included in the official call, had been knocking on the door for recognition. They include the Women's Alliance, the National anti-Monopolists, the Alliance Assemblies of the Industrial Union, the Union Reform association and the Central Nationalists, and a lot of other concerns of the existence of which none of the old delegates had ever heard before.

There seemed to be a very strong suspicion in the committee that these concerns were of a mushroom growth, and that in some of them, at least, the handiwork of the political striker, with an eye toward a possible barter sale after the opening of the national campaign, could be discerned. Nevertheless, it was agreed to give all of the elements that sought open sesame a chance to tell all about themselves and their movements, but this was such a task that when the members of the committee separated, well on toward daylight, their work was still incomplete.

Finally the committee made their appearance, and at 10:15 the convention was formally called to order. President Cannon asked the delegates to receive the report in the spirit it was offered, and not to precipitate a Kilkeny fight. The report, which was a unanimous one, and covered all the states except Georgia, where there is a contest, showed that nearly 700 delegates were present under the original call. In addition, it was recommended to admit all the editors of the reform press, representatives of the National Farmers' league, of Maine, of the Union reform conference of the Industrial Alliance, Jerry Simpson to be one of the number of the Knights of Agriculture and the Woman's Alliance and Industrial Union.

Ignatius Donnelly moved the addition of Miss Frances Willard, Lady Somerset and two other women as representatives of the Women's Christian Temperance union. This was agreed to with a number of dissenting votes, and then the report was adopted in spite of the vociferous objections of a number of representatives of the United anti-Monopoly league.

A wrangle of nearly an hour's duration was occasioned by a resolution naming Colonel L. L. Polk as permanent chairman, which the chairman rushed through without putting the negative question. It resulted in Polk finally refusing to take the gavel. A resolution reconsidering the action by which he was elected was adopted, and nominations for chairman were then called for. Polk was again named, as was also Ben Terrell, of Texas, but the former was again elected by a nineteenth vote.

On taking the chair, Polk, who was greeted with cheers and a few cries of "Our candidate for president," made a brief address. As vice presidents Frances Willard and Ben Terrell were unanimously chosen. Miss Willard was literally carried to the platform and given a right royal reception when she reached there. John W. Hayes was elected permanent secretary. Warwick, of Virginia, a delegate from the colored men's Alliance, was elected assistant secretary, but not without a good deal of opposition from Georgia and Alabama delegates, notwithstanding the declaration in favor of no colored line.

A paper was read from two Alliance members at Washington asking that the strongest possible resolutions be adopted in favor of the anti-option bills now before congress, and a resolution for the appointment of a committee to comply with the request was adopted by a nearly unanimous vote. The convention then took a recess until 2:30 p. m.

Afternoon Session.

It took nearly two hours for the delegates to get together and appoint the representatives on the various committees, and when the list came to be read it was found that nearly a third of the entire convention had been made committeemen.

The Georgia contest was finally decided. Congressman Charles T. Moses, of the Fourth Georgia district, came here at the head of four delegates from the Farmers' Alliance of his state, who had been designated to act by the state executive committee for the party.

C. C. Post, the well-known Alliance advocate, had preceded with a number of delegates representing the same organization, but who had been chosen by the different districts. Moses was avowedly in favor of framing a declaration of principles and submitting them for approval to the Democratic national convention, opposing a third party ticket on the ground that it might result in the delivery of some of the southern states to the Republicans. Post, on the other hand, is an out and out third partyite.

The committee on credentials gave a tight and half of yesterday to the contested delegation, and finally decided to seat three of the Post and two of the Moses delegation. It was on this proposition that an exciting episode occurred. Post was satisfied, but Moses was not. In the course of the debate W. E. Branch, of Georgia, charged that while Moses was for harmony in the abstract, he was not for any harmony that would not deliver over the farmers, bound hand and foot, to the Democratic party. It was this attack that led to the outbreak.

Mr. Moses, with quivering frame, distended eyes, uplifted arm and clenched fist, cried out: "If it is a crime to be a Democrat, then you can take me out and hang me now." A perfect cyclone of groans and hisses, starting on the floor and following its track up to the top gallery of exposition hall, followed in the wake of the challenge.

"Hang me now," repeated Moses, in a voice that penetrated the din, and again there was an avalanche of unnatural sounds, in the midst of which, with apparently every nerve and fiber shaking with passion and excitement, the Georgia congressman sank back into his seat.

Later in the day Congressman Livingston, who had been charged with being in sympathy with Moses, rekindled the flames. He said it had been gossiped in streets, at the corners, and in the hotels that he was plotting to give the Alliance vote of Georgia to the Democrats. The man did not live who would come to his face and dare make that statement. There were things that no man should touch unmolested; his religion or his political principles.

Outside of this episode the day was practically wasted. All that has so far been accomplished in a half day Monday and nine hours yesterday could have been done by a well regulated assembly in one hour. Business was continually interrupted with songs and story telling.

The committee on resolutions is hard at work preparing its report.

CAVERN LINED WITH SILVER.

Wonderful Discovery of a Colorado Poor Prospector.

CREEDE, Colo., Feb. 24.—As Prospector Brandt was walking over Batchelor mountain he stumbled upon a find which raised him in a moment from comparative poverty to opulence. His find was a cavern, the roof of which, vaulted and hanging with stalactites, showed droppings of pure silver ore running $10,000 to the ton. This chamber is fifty feet wide and 200 feet long, and contains enough ore on the surface to make Brandt a millionaire. Besides the silver the cavern contains utensils, skeletons and remains of human beings, evidently those of cliff dwellers, but the antiquarian discovery is lost in interest in the phenomenal silver find. Brandt reported the find here, and the people went wild. Hundreds left for the cliff-dweller's claim, as it is called. Brandt was offered $100,000 cash for the claim by a syndicate of California capitalists, but he refused it.

VIOLENT STORMS.

Great Damage Done All Along the Eastern Coast.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 24.—A violent storm is raging along the Virginia coast. At Cape Henry the wind is blowing forty miles an hour and the rain is falling in torrents.

The schooner Annie E. Pierce, of Wilmington, was driven ashore near Cape Hatteras with such force that the mate was instantly killed and the captain's leg broken. Life-saving crews are doing their utmost, but reports are meagre owing to the severity of the storm.

Spanish Steamer Ashore.

CAPE CHARLES, Va., Feb. 24.—A Spanish steamship, name unknown, is ashore on Hog Island. Wreckers from Norfolk have been ordered to go to her assistance.

Never Finished His Journey.

ENGLISH, Ind., Feb. 24.—Dr. Milton H. Holcroft, of New Providence, Ill. of the grip and other complications, started for the home of his parents at Leavenworth, but, after reaching Louisville, he was unable to proceed with his journey. His parents were notified by telegraph, and they reached his bedside two days before his death. His remains were buried yesterday at Leavenworth. The deceased was unmarried. He graduated from the medical university of Louisville, class '88, and engaged in the drug business.

Loss to the Insurance Companies.
CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Fire at 123 and 124 Market street yesterday damaged the stock of L. C. Wachsmuth & Company, wholesale clothiers, to the amount of $30,000, and C. D. Osborn & Company, glove manufacturers, sustained a loss of $5,000. The building was damaged not to exceed $5,000. All the losses amply covered by insurance.

Too Many Unused Tools.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Feb. 24.—The Springfield Implement company applied for a receiver yesterday afternoon. Assets, $2,000; unsecured debts, $5,000.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Several Important Bills Introduced in the House.

A PENSION LAW AMENDMENT.

Representative Powers, of Vermont, Introduces a Bill to Amend the Pension Law—Paddock's Pure Food Bill Debated in the Senate—Other Dispatches from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Representative Dickerson, of Kentucky, introduced in the house yesterday two resolutions from the general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky, one urging that congress pass a measure for increase of salary to the members of the life-saving station crews of the United States, and the other recommending an amendment to the constitution of the United States, empowering the people, by popular vote, to elect their senators in congress.

Representative Reilly introduced a bill to provide for the permanent preservation and custody of the records of the volunteer armies by establishing in the war department a division to be known as the record and pension division, to be under the supervision of an army officer, with the rank of colonel.

Representative Powers, of Vermont, introduced a bill to amend the bill granting pensions to soldiers and sailors who are incapacitated for the performance of manual labor, and providing pensions for widows, minor children and dependent parents. The amendment provides that in case a minor child is insane, idiotic or otherwise permanently helpless, the pensions shall continue during the life of the child, or during the period of such disability, irrespective of age.

Representative Cogswell introduced a bill to establish a national sanitarium in northern New Mexico for the treatment of consumption.

The president is authorized to visit New Mexico and select a suitable site. The secretary of war is authorized to furnish the board a list of abandoned military reservations in New Mexico and Colorado, from which the site is to be selected. Fifty thousand dollars is to be appropriated for the repair and maintenance of station to be used as the national sanitarium.

In the Senate.

In the senate, after the introduction of a number of unimportant local bills, the Paddock pure food bill was taken up and debated until 4:35, when the senate, on motion of Mr. Platt, went into executive session, and at 4:40 adjourned.

Last Reception of the Season.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—A vast crowd surged through the White House last night to pay their respects to the president and Mrs. Harrison. It was the closing reception of the season, and was given in honor of the public. Every rank and condition of life was present. In compliment to the public, the decorations of the east room were on a most elaborate scale, compatible with arrangements for allowing the greatest amount of space possible. The doors were thrown open at 8:09 o'clock, and from that hour until 11 o'clock a constant stream of persons passed through and greeted the president. Mrs. Morton and other ladies assisted the president and Mrs. Harrison in receiving.

Daughters of the Revolution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The second day's session of the first continental congress of the Daughters of the Revolution was an interesting one throughout. The president general, Mrs. Cabell, presided, and the program was opened with prayer. A number of interesting papers were read. Papers from the representatives from all states represented were submitted. They show that the society has 1,700 members and seventy regents, and that the chapters are being established in every state.

First Campaign Contribution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Chairman Price, of the national Democratic committee, has received his first contribution to the fund of 1892. It came in the shape of a check for $10 from an enthusiastic Iowa Democrat, who sent with it a letter overflowing with Democratic zeal, and full of predictions of the triumph of his party in the approaching contest.

Private Dalzell's Latest.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Private Dalzell has issued a call for a convention of old soldiers to meet at Minneapolis the day prior to the national Republican convention. He says the politicians have not treated the soldiers right, and that the veterans must make a platform and compel the politicians to stand on it.

The Kearsage at Jamaica.

An Unfortunate Family.

ENGLISH, Ind., Feb. 24.—William Smith, near Leavenworth, fell off his horse, breaking his arm and three ribs. Almost at the same hour his son Richard, who was trying to stand on a rolling barrel, fell off and broke two ribs. His cries were heard by the servant maid, and, in her hasty run down stairs to his relief, she tripped and fell, breaking her thigh and dislocating an ankle.

Jewelers Assign.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 24.—Joseph Mayer & Company, jewelers, made an assignment yesterday for the benefit of creditors. The assets are $10,000, and the liabilities supposed to be about $15,000.

T DREAMED IN S. N. L. Y.

MOORE'S HILL, Ind., Feb. 24.—Fields flooded time and again by rain, and soon after frozen; this has been the recent lot of the farmer.

None can call it strange that he does not regard his coming wheat crop with highest expectations. There have been many other hindering things than wet weather and cold.

In this portion of the state there are wheat growers who await with some anxiety what spring may reveal as the ravages of the Hessian fly.

The insect was seen last fall along the roads and in the meadows in alarming numbers. Serious apprehensions are felt that it did much damage before it died. The injury can not be fully known for months, since wheat that has been stung continues to wither and fall even until harvest time.

Interesting Stories.

Interesting stories have been written of the Hessian fly, whose work is now an unknown factor in the year's wheat yield. It is said that the insect came to America in straw on which the Hessian soldiers of the revolution slept as they crossed the Atlantic. Its path, like that of empires, has been steadily westward; and millions of damage have everywhere marked its path.

The Fly Described.

The Hessian fly is scarcely larger than a Jersey musquito; slender, wasp-like, darting, impudent. Like the Irishman's musquito, it is never there. It is black, and one-tenth of an inch in length. Two broods a year are laid, appearing in spring and autumn. Twenty or thirty little eggs are deposited on a single stalk of wheat.

If the weather be warm and dry, the tiny young are hatched in four days. They hid between the leaf and the stalk, far down beneath the ground. In a few months the pupae have become winged insects, which appear not long from May day.

The midges feed upon the wheat, sucking its juices. Two or three on a stalk will insure its death. Farmers have a single way to rid themselves of the pest, by plowing the ground and giving the land to pasture.

First Observed in 1776.

The Hessian fly was first observed on Staten island in 1776. It spread through New York and Connecticut at the rate of twenty miles a year; 1797 saw it west of the Alleghenies. Wheat raising in many places has been abandoned because of its presence. It has eaten millions. Spring will tell what it has done for Indiana.

OHIO FARM ANIMALS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—From the last bulletin issued at the agricultural department the following note on Ohio farm animals is taken:

Heavy horses have taken the lead for some years, but as the price has declined, attention has been turned to coach horses and a high class of hackneys. French and German coachers have been brought into some sections of the state, and the prices of these and well-bred roadsters have increased. The price of common horses is declining.

Attention has been directed more to dairy cattle than to oxen and other cattle. In the vicinity of cities and the butter and cheese producing centers the demand is equal to the supply and prices are fair to good. The influx of western beef and the high price of feed has made the beef producing business decidedly unprofitable.

Sheep—prime mutton—find ready sale, and, competition being more restricted than with beef, prices have ranged with profit to feeders. Wool, however, is lower than for years. The tendency is to cross fine wool sheep with Lincoln, Shropshire and other large mutton breeds, aiming to secure large lambs for early feeding.

There is no decline in any class of stock so great as that of hogs. The reduction of their number has been as great as it was possible, owing to the low price of pork as compared with the high price of corn.

Noted Reformer Dead.

BOSTON, Feb. 24.—E. M. Chamberlain, a noted labor reformer, woman suffragist and temperance advocate, and who was associated with Garrison and Phillips in the anti-slavery movement, died of grip at his home in Cambridge yesterday. The deceased came of a wealthy family, but was disinherited by his father on account of his political opinions. At one time he was proprietor and editor of The Echo, a journal devoted to the consideration of radical and economic questions. In the early days of the greenback movement he was nominated for governor by the greenback and the labor reform parties.

May Yet Be Valuable.

PORTLAND, Ind., Feb. 24.—The well drilled by the Indianapolis Water company at this place for gas, while proving a failure for the purposes for which it was drilled, may yet establish a value. It flows about fifty barrels of artesian water daily, and experts claim that the water possesses medical qualities. The Water company is having a test made by expert chemists.

Fatal Blow Probably.

BRAZIL, Ind., Feb. 24.—Several days ago, while in Michael Doyle's saloon, Frank Miller abused Gus Reubelt, a boy, and Reubelt knocked him down with a beer nallet. Little was thought of the injury at the time, but it developed seriously, and Miller's condition is now critical.

Free Storage Provided For.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Mr. Alex. E. Orr, a leading member of the New York Produce exchange, has arranged to provide free storage for the grain arriving and to arrive from Iowa and other western states for the relief of famine stricken inhabitants of Russia.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1892.

"How long will the present Legislature be in session?" asks one of our exchanges. To be brief, nobody knows.

If Senator Hill fails to get the Democratic nomination for President, it will not be through any fault of the Cincinnati Enquirer and Atlanta Constitution.

On account of Mardi Gras at New Orleans the C. and O. Railway Co. will sell round trip tickets from Maysville to New Orleans at $22.90. Tickets on sale Feb. 26th to 29th inclusive, and limited until March 15th, 1892.

DEMOCRATS throughout the land have been rejoicing of late over the party's having gained complete control of the State government in New York. At the way things are now going in the Empire State it won't be a great while before the rejoicing will be done by our friends, the enemy.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND was tendered a grand ovation at Ann Arbor Monday. People paid as high as $5 for a seat in the hall where he delivered his address. The desire to hear Senator Hill read a speech at Albany, N. Y., wasn't so strong as we have not heard of any one being willing to give up any cash to get into the convention hall.

As Staple as Coffee.

"Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is as staple as coffee in this vicinity. It has done an immense amount of good since its introduction here."—A. M. Nordell, Maple Ridge, Minn. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

Here and There.

Mrs. J. E. Wright is at Carrollton, Ky., visiting her mother.

Miss Mamie Archdeacon has returned from a visit at Frankfort and Lexington.

Mr. John B. Holton, of Washington, has gone on a business trip to Indianapolis, his old home.

Richard W. Wood and wife, of Washington, went to Cincinnati and Covington yesterday to visit friends.

Mrs. Mary Forman Paxton, of Plate City, Mo., is expected in Kentucky shortly to meet her brother, Rev. Charles W. Forman, now on his way from India.

Mrs. Thos. F. Rogers, of Mt. Sterling, and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Leyland and daughter, Miss Mary, of Boston, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, of West Second street.

Real Estate Transfers.

Mary M. Lyon and husband to Grandison Y. Reynolds, 3 acres, 2 rods and 15 poles of land in and near Minerva; consideration, $820.

THE people have an opportunity to buy goods of W. L. Thomas & Brother at lower prices than ever offered before. The stock must go, as they have to give up their store room in a very short time.

Says the Covington Commonwealth: "The estimable wife of Rev. Dr. Morgan, former pastor of Fourth Street Christian Church, died Tuesday morning at the residence of her brother-in-law, Dr. Murnan, of Madison avenue. The deceased was a highly cultivated lady, whose every aim and ambition in life seemed to be trying to make others happy. Her death will be greatly deplored."

Mrs. Morgan was Miss Clara Kercheval, and leaves many relatives and friends in this city, and in Orangeburg and vicinity.

THE Minerva Dramatic Club will give a series of entertainments at the Baptist Church at that place, beginning on Wednesday, March 2nd, and continuing until the Friday night following. The programme has not yet been definitely arranged. Preparations have been made to render two dramas, "Out in the Streets" and "The Last Leaf," and two farces "Jumbo Jum" and "Hans Von Smash." The club consists of some of Minerva's leading young ladies and gentlemen.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

TOLLESBORO.

David Craig, of near Sand Hill, was here Monday.
Constable B. A. Bryant is on the sick list this week.
Prof. I. S. Kay's select school will open here Monday next.
Mrs. A. C. Owens, who has been quite ill all winter, is improving.

T. H. Hamrick and Robert and Tom Lykins were at the county seat Monday.

J. T. Worthington received the sad announcement of the death of his father at Mayslick, Sunday last.

Uriah Kimble, a prosperous farmer of Adams County, Ohio, was the guest of Dr. Burdick Friday last.

Messrs. Pollitt & Buckley have received about 50,000 pounds of tobacco at their warehouse here in the last few days.

Rev. Morgan filled his regular appointment here morning and evening, Sunday last at the M. E. Church, South.

The union meeting which had been in progress at the M. E. Church for some time, closed Thursday evening last week.

Jack Hendrickson, Willie Gray, Oll and J. Nes. Tanager were in attendance on the stock sales at Flemingsburg Monday.

Jack Paine and family will move to Fleming County this week. We will lose and Fleming will gain a good citizen.

Glen, third son of Dr. W. T. Burdick, who has been seriously ill with erysipelas in the head and face, is slowly improving.

Mrs. D. A. Cadwallader returned from Vanceburg Saturday, where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Kenton Parker.

Jack Hendrickson has secured a position with Frank McColm, the marble man of Manchester, O., as traveling salesman.

Elder Elliott, State evangelist for the Christian Church, preached here Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening.

A number of our young folks attended the musical soiree at the residence of James McCormick, Poplar Flat, on Saturday evening last. They report an enjoyable time.

Frank Bryant has a cane that is one hundred and fifty years old. It formerly belonged to the Toneray family, who brought it from Virginia. The old stick is warped and worm-eaten, but is still a formidable weapon, as it has a stiletto in its handle which is sheathed in the body of the cane, when it is used for walking purposes.

GERMANTOWN.

Mr. Burns, of —, is the guest of Rev. College. R. P. Thompson and wife, of Augusta, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Sue D. Pollock is visiting the family of W. B. Coburn, near Washington.

Mrs. Tom McDowell and son, of Jessamine Co., are guests of Mrs. Lou Dittmer.

Rev. C. W. Humphrey will begin a protracted meeting at Woodward chapel this week.

Mrs. H. B. Galbraith and Mrs. J. W. Jett spent last week with Mrs. Cora Smith, near Shannon.

J. R. Humlong is just convalescing from a serious attack of erysipelas of the head and face.

Mr. John Erion and bride of Batavia, O., spent part of their honeymoon with the family of his uncle, George Erion.

Mrs. McKinney and sons will sell all their personal property next Saturday at 10 o'clock. They propose returning to their former home at Seattle, on Puget's Sound.

There is no good reason why Maysville should have a monopoly of all the good things in the gift of the people. She has the Sheriff, the County Judge, Jailor, Assessor, etc., and it would seem that this ought to gratify the desires of the people for office. The western part of the county deserves some consideration. Isaac Woodward has long been a faithful and zealous worker for the success of the Democratic party, has ever been true and reliable in all the trusts committed to his care, has to the highest degree the confidence and esteem of the people wherever he is known, and is in every way worthy and deserving of the office to which he aspires. Rotation in office has always been a safe rule and custom of a free people and Mason County will do well to see that it is not broken.

Dr. Henry B. Savage, who is well known in this region, met with an unfortunate experience on last Friday morning in his western home. Fire broke out in a store beneath his office in which he was sleeping, and when he awakened his room was full of smoke, and he barely escaped with his life. In trying to secure his gold watch and some other valuables his hair and mustache were burned off, and he was compelled to let them burn. His library, instruments, clothing and office fixtures were all consumed. Rotation in office has always been a safe rule and custom of a free people and Mason County will do well to see that it is not broken.

MAYSICK.

The rats last week put the tobacco in fine case and a good deal of the weed was delivered Friday and Saturday.

Geo. Brown and the smooth talker Smith, Geo. Brown's man, were stopping at the Stonewall House last Friday evening.

The finest sample of tobacco we have seen this season was placed on our desk last Saturday by J. B. Peed, who lives near Fern Leaf. He has about 25,000 pounds.

Those in arrears for the daily BULLETIN will please call and settle with the agent, J. A. Jackson. The terms are payable in advance and he has to settle up the first of every month. Please don't forget.

MILL CREEK.

Tobacco is leaving this neighborhood quite lively. Prices satisfactory.

Father Hickey, who has been confined to his bed for some time, is improving.

A. M. CAMPBELL, Real-estate, loans and collections. tm16

La Grippe!

The tendency of this disease toward pneumonia is what makes it dangerous. La Grippe requires precisely the same treatment as a severe cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of severe colds. This Remedy effectually counteracts the tendency of the disease to result in pneumonia, provided that proper care be taken to avoid exposure when recovering from the attack. Careful inquiry among the many thousands who have used this remedy during the epidemics of the past two years has failed to discover a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

Mrs. M. E. PARSON, of Lewis County, and Miss Emma Ross, of Fleming County, were married yesterday by Rev. Cyrus Riffe.

CHURCH conference of the M. E. Church, South, Thursday evening at the court house in connection with the prayer meeting. The officers are asked to have written reports ready.

THE following we clip from the Flemingsburg Gazette: "Well, Dickinson, the photographer who has been with us the past four years and given satisfaction to all his patrons, went to Maysville last week where he will work at his profession during the winter and spring. We take pleasure in recommending Mr. Dickinson to the people of Maysville as being a first-class artist and an accommodating gentleman." 23d2t&w1t

THE MARKETS.

Weekly Review of Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

The offerings at auction for the week just closed were 3,000 hds, classed as follows: 389 hds Mason County (Ky.) District; 488 hds Pendleton County (Ky.) District; 413 hds Owen County (Ky.) District; 414 hds Blue Grass (Ky.) District; 375 hds Brown County (Ohio) District; and 19 hds West Virginia, of which 1,586 were new, against 2,529 hds the previous week, of which 1,272 hds were new, and 3,003 hds corresponding week last year, of which 1,577 hds were new. Total offerings for the year to date 19,859 hds of which 8,673 hds were new, against 18,567 hds same time last year, of which 5,310 hds were new.

Receipts for the week.....1,861
Receipts same week last year.....2,036

The offerings were larger than previous week, and were very heavy. The receipts show a slight falling off, but are still of good size. The market can be quoted as firm, with a good steady demand throughout the entire week. Buyers gave the sales close attention, and were active bidders. Common trash, lugs and nondescripts (old) show the same active demand that has characterized these grades for some time, and they are taken at full prices. Medium and red tobaccos, while in good request, do not find special favor with buyers, and prices paid are not entirely satisfactory. For good and fine leaf there is an active demand, and this kind is bringing full quotations. There was a firm active market for new. Good and fine leaf shows a spirited demand and full prices, quite a number of hogsheads selling from $20 to $27. Common and medium leaf was in good demand. The common and low grades are active, and sell at full prices.

The Indiana Warehouse sold 1 hhd fancy leaf (new) at $26.75, and the Cincinnati Warehouse 2 hds fancy leaf (new) at $26.27, the latter the highest price of the year.

J. V. Payne, of Georgetown, Ky., sold at the Walker House a crop lot of 6 hds (new) at $18.05, $14.75, $16.75, $18.75, $21.75, $22, averaging $17.

Of the 1,586 hds (new) 52 sold from $1 to $3.95, 302 from $4 to $5.95, 542 from $6 to $7.95, 183 from $8 to $9.95, 300 from $10 to $14.75, 17 from $15 to $19.75, 28 from $20 to $24 and 2 at $26.75.

Of the 1,513 hds (old) 80 sold from $1 to $3.95, 333 from $4 to $5.95, 496 from $6 to $7.95, 232 from $8 to $9.95, 224 from $10 to $14.75, 103 from $15 to $19.75, 35 from $20 to $24.25 and 2 at $26.25.

NEWS FROM FRANKFORT.

New Bills Introduced in the Legislature—Shall Grand Jurors Testify.

An act to repeal the local option laws in several mountain counties.

An act to amend the fence laws.

An act to amend the civil codes.

An act to amend the General Statutes so that Circuit Clerks may be paid for services for Common Pleas and other courts.

Mr. Pettit offered a resolution to call upon the Register of the Land Office to furnish information as to whether the office is self-sustaining. The resolution also asks if there is still a demand for the temporary clerk employed eight years ago. It was adopted.

The bill to amend the Criminal Code, so as to allow grand jurors to testify as to the consistency of persons who give evidence before court as well as in the grand jury room, was called up. Mr. Whitaker spoke against it, saying it was inquisitorial and unfair. He wanted to strike out the emergency clause. Mr. Dawson spoke for the bill, claiming that it would, if passed, save the State a great deal of money. He said many people go before grand juries and swear falsely in order to get their enemies in trouble. He thought they should be punished for false swearing at once. Mr. Whitaker argued again that an emergency clause should not be tacked to every bill.

In the Senate, Mr. George presented a lengthy memorial asking for the passage of his bill to pension disabled Confederate and Federal soldiers. He, by consent, addressed the Senate at length in favor of his bill.

Mr. Miller's bill to appoint a committee to investigate the Feeble-minded Institute with a view to ascertain the incurables and sending them back to their respective counties, was referred to the Committee on Public Health.

For the Farmer.

An estimate of the annual value of wax and honey in the United States is the amount of $30,000,000.

It is reported that in Northwestern Minnesota and the Dakotas not less than 30,000,000 bushels of wheat are still in stacks.

Never start a horse with a whip. The horse is as susceptible to kind words and kind treatment as any animal. Teach them to start with the word.

The Messrs. Childs raised seven acres of tobacco on the farm of Mr. John Power, near this city, last season, and have sold it at 12 cents per pound. It brought them $1,450.

Four trotters have sold within the past month for $207,000—Arion, $125,000; Ralph Wilkes, $30,000; Constantine, $27,000; and Baby McKee, $25,000. Verily the bottom is falling out, says the Danville Advocate.

Three mares selling at auction for $15, 100, $12,850 and $10,000, as did Palo Alto Belle, Mary Marshall and Position, respectively, all within two days, would seem to indicate the breeders are still wanting the best.—Kentucky Stock Farm.

River News.

The coal run from Pittsburg on the present rise amounts to about 4,000,000 bushels.

The new Pittsburg and Cincinnati packet Iron Queen will be completed in about three weeks.

The Bonanza and Keystone State will pass down this evening and Bostona tonight. Due up: Stanley for Charleston and City of Madison for Pomeroy.

The Driscoll-Mangan Shooting Scrape.

Night Watchman Driscoll returned to Maysville yesterday afternoon, and his trial is set for this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Some eye witnesses of the shooting have been found. It is said one of them will testify that Deputy Marshal Mangan provoked the trouble at Second and Market, and was threatening Driscoll when the latter pulled his pistol and shot.

Driscoll says he doesn't remember what took place. All the facts will likely be brought out at the trial this afternoon.

THE Danville Advocate says: "Mr. W. B. Thomas, formerly of this place, but more recently of Maysville, will assume the duties of business manager of the Kentucky Homestead at Lexington, March 1st. Mr. Thomas is a young man of energy and fine business qualifications, and will prove a valuable addition to the Homestead's force."

The many friends Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have made during their residence here will sincerely regret to see them leave Maysville.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The International Association Will Erect a Building on the World's Fair Grounds

At the meeting of the Executive Committee of the International Sunday school convention, and at the conference of the Sunday school workers, held at Chautauqua, New York, in August last, it was unanimously decided to request the Sunday school workers of America to unite in the erection of a model Sunday school building, to be erected upon the "World's Fair grounds," in connection with the "Columbian Exposition," to be held in the year 1893, in city of Chicago.

It is proposed first, to exhibit a model Sunday school building, second, in this building, by maps, charts, plates, tables, pictures, books, papers, etc., to show the present condition of Sunday school work in different parts of the world. Third, to illustrate the growth and progress of Sunday schools. Fourth, to use the building as a Sunday school headquarters and reception room during the exposition.

It is proposed to raise the sum of $25,000 for the building, and an additional sum for expenses, by contributions from Sunday schools and individuals, the collections to be made as follows:

Each Sunday school is requested to give an amount equal to not less than 10 cents for each officer and teacher, and 1 cent for each scholar connected with the school, (this is the smallest amount, and scholars are requested to give a larger amount if able to do so).

Contributions of not less than $1, and as large an amount as possible, to be solicited from individuals.

Engraved certificates, containing a picture of the building, will be sent to each school contributing not less than the amount named above, giving the name and location of the school and the amount given toward the building. And similar certificates, will be sent to all individuals contributing $1 or more.

All contributions will be acknowledged by mail, and a record of the names of all schools and individuals and the amount given by each will be kept in the building during the fair. All contributions should be forwarded to R. W. Hare, care of B. F. Jacobs, No. 39 Washington street, Chicago, Ill.

In sending your contribution give the name of your Sunday school, the place where it is located, the denomination to which you belong, the total number of officers and teachers; the total number of scholars (all ages) and the amount of your contribution.

When contributions are sent from individuals give the name and address of each person who contributes $1 or more, and the amount given by each.

DESPERATE FIGHT.

Battle Between Burglars and Police.

TOWN WILD WITH EXCITEMENT.

Two Men Dying and Two Others Badly Wounded at Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania—A Desperate's Threat Fully Carried Out.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Feb. 24.—A desperate fight between police officers and three toughs, supposed to be burglars, took place here last night. As a result two men are dying and two others are badly wounded.

At about 8 o'clock Officers Cornell and Greene noticed three men trying to dispose of some razors on Fifth street. The two policemen approached the men and told them to consider themselves under arrest. The desperadoes answered by pulling out self-cocking revolvers, which they began firing at the policemen.

Officer Cornell fell on the pavement with a bullet through his groin, but returned the fire at the then retreating men. In the meantime, Officer Greene opened fire and at least a dozen shots were exchanged. One of the desperadoes ran into a restaurant, where one of his companions had already sought safety, and Officer Greene followed and demanded that he surrender, and both burglars again opened fire on the officer, and in some manner the lights were extinguished. Greene managed to dodge three shots and succeeded in shooting one man through the mouth and the other through the right breast. The men ran out of the restaurant and disappeared.

By this time a large crowd gathered on the street, and one of the burglars, who began shooting, was captured. Twenty minutes later the police were notified that a man was found dying on a doorstep on Eighth avenue. The dying man was found to be one of the men who opened fire on the officer in the restaurant. He was taken to the engine house, but refused to divulge his name. The doctor says he can not recover. The man arrested was shot through the arm and wrist. The man who was shot through the mouth and who is no doubt the worst injured, has not been found, and is supposed to have fallen somewhere near the scene of the shooting.

Officer Cornell, who was shot in the groin, is not dangerously injured and will probably recover. The town is wild with excitement.

The three men came here a day or two ago and are supposed to hail from Pittsburg, but it is believed that they are the same gang that have been robbing stores at Niles, O. All were heavily armed and, just before the attempt to arrest them, they sent word to the police that the first man who tried it would be shot down. How well they carried out their threat is shown by the subsequent acts. The bravery shown by the two officers is unparalleled in the police history of this town.

NOT A CAR MOVING.

No Change in the Indianapolis Street Car Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 24.—The street car tie-up remains unchanged. But one attempt was made to run cars yesterday, and that was promptly checked by the strikers, who pushed the car back into the barn as soon as the company's road officers got it out.

When the strikers pushed the car back into the barn the police were telephoned for, but a reply from the superintendent was promptly returned that the police force would not interfere. This leaves the company at the mercy of the strikers unless the courts interfere to protect the company.

The papers have been prepared and will be filed asking for an injunction against the strikers, and it is hoped by this means to get the assistance of the sheriff's office in the running of cars.

Petitions bearing 10,000 signatures demanding President Frenzel's removal will go forward to the Chicago directors of the company tomorrow.

Preferred Death to Prison.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Feb. 24.—John Kaiser, a photographer of this city, quarreled with his wife yesterday morning and shot her twice, inflicting wounds from which she died soon afterwards. Kaiser fled to the outskirts of the city and took refuge under a barn. He was pursued by a mob of citizens armed with guns and revolvers and the barn was surrounded. The mob ordered Kaiser to surrender, but he refused and, drawing a revolver, blew out his brains.

Missing Insurance Man.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 24.—Harry Altman, manager of the St. Louis branch of the United Life Insurance company, of New York, has been missing since last Thursday. As yet no examination of his books has been made, and it is not known whether he is short in his accounts or not. Young Altman has been married less than a year, and his domestic life is said to have been very happy. It is known, however, that he has been in financial trouble for some time.

Shot the Wrong Man.

AURORA, Ind., Feb. 24.—About two miles below here yesterday afternoon, on board the steamer John K. Speed, bound for Cincinnati, the mate for some cause shot at a colored rouabout. The ball missed him, but struck Charles Pixey, who had a consignment of stock on board. Pixey was taken to the Globe hotel here, where he lies in a critical condition, the ball having passed through his abdomen.

Germany Not Behind England.

BERLIN, Feb. 24.—The Siemens-Halske company is preparing for an extraordinary electric exhibit at the Chicago world's fair, to show that Germany is not behind England or France in the advancement of electric science. Merchants and manufacturers of all kinds throughout Germany are awakening to the importance of the fair, and every day brings promise of a display worthy of the empire.

CLEVELAND IN DETROIT.

The Ex-President Enthusiastically Welcomed to the City.

DETROIT, Feb. 24.—Grover Cleveland, accompanied by Don M. Dickinson, ex-Governor Campbell, R. W. Gilder and a small contingent of prominent Michigan Democrats started out yesterday morning in President Ledyard's private car for Toledo, where Mr. Cleveland made a visit with his sister, Mrs. Bacon, returning to Detroit at 2:30 in the afternoon. The return was made the occasion of the first formal greeting extended to the ex-president in Detroit.

At the Michigan Central depot the party was met by a reception committee, headed by Acting Mayor Coots, who, in a brief speech, welcomed Mr. Cleveland to Detroit, and presented resolutions of welcome adopted by the common council at a recent meeting. Then the whole party was loaded into carriages, and, under the escort of a full regiment of state troops, was escorted to the home of ex-Postmaster General Dickinson, where the members rested until evening.

An hour before the time set for the public reception to Mr. Cleveland at the Hotel Cadillac last night the streets in the neighborhood of that place were crowded for two squares in every direction with people anxious to get a glimpse of Mr. Cleveland and shake his hand. The police officers had their hands full keeping the crowd in order which relieved itself of its enthusiasm by repeated and unanimous inquiries as to what was the matter with Cleveland.

Inside the hotel the scene was a brilliant one. The immense office, club rooms and the ladies' parlor had been converted into a reception room, which was thronged by the flower of the Michigan Democracy, officers of the state troops, and military officers from Fort Wayne, long before Mr. Cleveland appeared from the parlors above.

Previous to the public reception, a private one was given in the presidential parlor to the more notable politicians of the state and prominent visitors from other states.

At 8 o'clock the receiving party took up a position between the ladies' parlor and the lobby of the hotel, and the crowd, which had up to that hour been held in check by the police, was admitted four abreast. Fully 7,000 people shook hands with Mr. Cleveland before 11 o'clock, when the doors were closed, and the receiving party withdrew to Mr. Dickinson's home.

The reception was entirely informal. There was no speaking on anybody's part beyond individual greetings.

During the day Mr. Cleveland persistently refused to be interviewed on the subject of the action of his supporters in New York. He said he did not propose to mix politics with pleasure. He did not deny that he and ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, talked politics during their visit here.

Mr. Dickinson thinks that his visit has made Michigan solid for Cleveland.

CREMATED COY.

The Negro Rapist Buried in the Potter's Field.

TEXARKANA, Ark., Feb. 24.—The charred remains of Coy, the negro rapist, were buried in the potter's field yesterday. Two distant relatives followed the body as the only mourners.

Mrs. Jewell, Coy's victim, who applied the burning brand to the coal-saturated garments of the negro, suffers no remorse for her part in the awful affair, and says she would do it over again were it necessary.

She says she could have cut the scoundrel's heart out when he was first brought into her presence after his capture. She was told, she says, that she could have the naming of his mode of death, and after the fullest deliberation she decided that death at the stake and by fire was the proper punishment for his crime.

Entombed Alive.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Feb. 24.—John Moriarity, a section boss on the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railroad, was literally entombed alive by the caving in of a gravel bank, about four miles east of town. His right ankle was broken and his chest caved in, while his body was covered with cuts and contusions from head to foot. It required fifteen minutes hard digging to remove the dirt and debris which covered him. He may recover.

Indications.

Fair weather and easterly winds Wednesday; slightly warmer Wednesday night; fair Thursday.
